sub-committee had fully investigated the matter and had come to the decision that it was a case of blackmail.

About 2:39 p. m. the Executive Committee met again, and at 3 o'clock went before the full meet ing of the Committee of Seventy, which was an open one. Mr. Larocque, after calling the meeting to order, said that there was now no doubt about success of the movement. The result had no presented to the enemy was a sufficient reward for the labor. Mr. Smith then said that he had HE FEELS SURE OF VICTORY some resolutions to read, and asked for their unanimous adoption. The action of the committee he thought, would prove satisfactory to all the organizations interested in good government, and would be the means of defeating Tammany Hall The resolutions named the ticket as already given, and recommended the candidates to the hearty support of all citizens opposed to the continuance of control by Tammany Hall, and authorized the Executive Committee to fill vacancies.

These were adopted as read, and General Collis offered a resolution, which was also adopted, making the executive and finance committees a cam

General Collis also offered the following, and it,

Resolved. That the Campaign Committee shall have power to offer rewards for evidence of the violation of the election laws, with power also to employ counsel and confer with the constituted authorities in all cases of alleged crime against the ballot laws. Mr. Sterne got the floor at this point, and offered a resolution to the effect that the Executive Committee be empowered to confer with the various organizations, looking to the indersement by the Committee of Aldermanic and Assembly Candidates General McCook, replying to Mr. Sterne, said that he thought the matter was one that was en-tirely without the province of the committee. They did not want to interfere where they had no right. They might as well meddle in Congress nominations. As he understood it, the only thing that were organized for was to secure the defeat of the Tammany municipal ticket. Mr. Sterne made a reply, but the motion was laid on the cable.

The meeting then adjourned.

The Republican County Convention will meet this evening at Adeiphi Hall, Broadway and Fifty-second-st., to complete the dry licket. It is probable that all the nominations of the Committee of Seventy will be approved, including Henry R. Beekman, for Judge of the Superior Court; John Jeroloman, for president of the Board of Aldermen, Edward J. H. Tamsen, for Sheriff, and Dr. William O'Meagher and Dr. Emile W. Hoeber, for coroners, Many Republicans expressed the opinion yesterday that no o'position would be manifested to-night to this course. Dr. Anderson, the State Democracy candidate for Coroner, having been withdrawn by the Grace organization, and Dr. O'Meagher, Republican, substituted on the State Democracy ticket, there will be no necessity for more conferences. General Collis, W. M. K. Olcott, chairman of the County Convention; John Simpson, of the Vith Assembly District; John Sabine Smith and other well-known Republicans were sure yesterday that nothing would mar the harmony of the convention to-night, and that the entire ticket of the Seventy, from Strong to O'Meagher, would be nailed to the Republican masthead.

TAMMANY MEN FOR CONGRESS. NOMINATIONS MADE IN ALL THE CITY DISTRICTS LAST NIGHT.

Tammany Hall nominated candidates for Congress last night in the several districts of this city. Franklin Bartlett was renominated in the VIIth District by the Tammany convention. He is a lawyer, and was first elected to Congress in 1892. James J. Walsh was nominated by the Tammany Hall Convention of the VIIIth District, to succeed E. J. Dunphy, the present member, who withdrew from Tammany Hall last winter and charged the frauds of the Wigwam upon Richard Croker and Police Justice Divver. Mr. Dunphy will run as an Independent Democratic candidate for re-election

Henry C. Miner, the well-known theatrical manager, was nominated for Congress last night in the IXth District, in place of Congressman Timothy J. Campbell, who has represented the district for sev-eral terms. The friends of Mr. Campbell denounce his "turning down" as a gross injustice. He will probably be an independent candidate for re-election, and may receive the indorsement of the State Democracy. If Mr. Campbell runs he will be likely to give Mr. Miner a good race.

In the Xth District General Daniel E. Sickles was renominated by the Tammany Convention held at the Pequod Club, No. 267 West Twenty-fifth-st. Generat Sickles appeared and made a speech accepting

DR. PARKHURST TELLS WHAT HE THINKS OF THE PROSPECTS.

HE MAKES A FINE SPEECH TO A LARGE AUDI ENCE ON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS - MR. STRAUS, HE SAYS, WOULD BE

BOUND HAND AND FOOT BY TAMMANY IF ELECTED.

The Lexington Avenue Enptist Church was rowded last night. Every seat was taken long before $ o'clock, and the aisles were filled with men and women anxious to hear the Rev. Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst, who had promised to address the members of the City Vigilance League of the XXVIth Assembly District. On the plat form were the Rev. K. Junor, Dr. F. S. Grob, W. H. Tolman and the Rev. Dr. J. L. Campbell, mints ter of the church. Dr. Parkhurst came in at 8:30 'clock, and was received with applause, loud and long-continued. After a prayer by the Rev. Dr. Patterson, minister of the East Harlem Presbyterian Church, Dr. Junor arose and briefly adssed the meeting. In introducing Dr. Parkhurst, he said that some fears had been entertained as to the success of the meeting, but that the great crowd present was in itself a guarantee that the cople in Harlem were deeply interested in the reformation of city politics, and in the cause of Then he introduced Dr. Park hurst, and when that sturdy exposer of municipal abuses went up on the platform the audience cheered. Just before Dr. Parkhurst spoke, Dr.

Campbell made a few remarks.

"Horace Greeley," he said, "once remarked that New-York was a great place when it got mad. I mad now, and every decent citizen should tingle with shame over the revelations which are being aily made before the Lexew Committee."

Dr. Junor then said that there was a barroom near his church which was a public nulsance. Captain Schmittberger had done all he could to suppress it, and so had his men, but it flourished. He had seen the Police Commissioners and told them that the 'saloon'' was a disgrace to the city, and was a reort for thieves and bad women, but the Commis sioners had done nothing. Then Dr. Parkhurst stepped forward. With all his old time vigor he spoke, and applause only interrupted him. He said

I want to say something right here, and it is this: Reporters some times make mistakes. I have been quoted as saying something about ex-Mayor Grace, and Mr. Grace is angry. An alleged interview with me was published in an evening paper, in which the idea was given that I had said that Mr. Grace was desirous of supporting a Tammany Hall ticket. Now, I never did anything of the kind, and I consider this a proper time and place to deny the report.

Now, we meet to-night under peculiar auspices, and we feel that we have come out upon open ground. We know what we have to do, and we know what we represent. There was a time when we could not clearly see our target, but now the air is clear. Tammany Hall has put forth Nathan Straus, and I am much pleased by the good words spoken by the Anti-Tammany press for Mr. Straus, It is hard, and my journalistic friends here will bear me out, always to tell the truth, but it is delightful to me to see how all the papers have joined in praising Mr. Straus, and in giving him the praise which is his due. Now, is it not funny that Tammany Hall has had to go outside to get such a man? But they know their own wares, (Laughter.) In spite of their filth and corruption they have ascertained that there are plenty of people who will support Straus and not fight against him. But his nomination does not change Tammany Hall. They have seen his kindness and generosity, but that changes not the Tiger. Ion i let your Tammany neighbor praise Mr. Straus, Let him praise Tammany Hall if he can. Straus has a ton of virtue where Tammany Hall has arounce. But should he become Mayor, he will be bound hand and foot by the system—the Tammany system—which has made him Mayor.

"I feel that we will have no walk-over in the coming election, but I feel confident that we will win, and have a vicitry so large that our friends the enemy will be cut off from all hope of revival in this world or resurrection in the next. We must place ourselves in fact where we are in theory."

Then Dr. Parkhurst paid high tribute to Mr. we meet to-night under peculiar auspless

Then Dr. Parkhurst paid high tribute to Mr. Goff, and continuing, spoke of the case which had come before the Lexow Committee this week, when a woman complained that her children had been taken from her because she would not "put up" money for the police. Then he complimented Policeman De Gann, and called him a "blue-coarded nobleman."

It was to the effect that the writer had been appointed to serve in the court and had been obliged to pay $30 a month to a relative of the Judge who had appointed him. And, furthermore, the Judge himself had made the bargain. Dr. Parkhurst refused to give the names of the men. It will come out before the Lexow Committee, he said.

CHOSEN BY BROOKLYN REPUBLICANS. GEORGE W. PALMER NOMINATED FOR CON-

Candidates were named by Brooklyn Republicans last evening for the city offices to be filled at the coming election. The City Convention, composed of 62 delegates, representing all the election districts of the city, assembled in the Palace Rink, in Clermont-ave. to choose the candidates for Controller and City Auditor. The same system of voting pre-valled that had been used on the present evening, but it worked more satisfactorily, as there was more amiliarity with it. Under appointment of the chairman of the County Committee William W. Goodrich presided. William J. Tate, former City Clerk, was made secretary. The others, and then business was begun by the adop-tion of rules to govern the action of the convention. E. T. Everett, F. W. Singleton, D. P. Watkins and

V. L. Gerrish, jr., were made tellers. A resolution offered by Tunis G. Bergen, of the crais for the purpose of uniting upon the city and tions of disfavor. Several delegates are and moved that the resolution be laid on the table. Mr. Berren secured the floor and read the resolution, saving that it was the unanimous desire of the Frist Ward to have this resolution adopted. The mention of the Shepard Democrats called forth and it was laid upon the table by an overwhelming vote.

Chairman Goodrich made a brief address on the dury of the convention. Fit associates for the men named by the Republican State Convention must be nominated. Mayor Schieren's administration had reduced the tax rate from £28 to £25, and the business of the city had not been hampered. Already $180,000 had been saved to the city treasury. For Controller the names of Horace E. Dresser and George W. Palmer were presented amid much enthusiasm, especially for the latter. The balloting showed a majority of votes for Mr. Palmer when the Twenty-eighth Ward was called, and a total of nearly $1,000 votes on the complete ballot out of 75,000 were cast for him. Mr. Dresser moved that the nomination of George W. Palmer be made unanimous, and this was adopted amid great applause.

Mr. Palmer was escorted to the platform by Mr. Dresser. In response to the applause, the candidate said that with the Republicans of the city he would do all in his power for victory on November 6, and if elected he would give the present city administration the fullest and most hearty support. (Applause.)

Mr. Palmer was born in the Fifth Ward, of

tration the fullest and most hearty support. (Applause.)

Mr. Palmer was born in the Fifth Ward of Brooklyn and has lived in the Seventeenth Ward of Brooklyn for forty four years. He is engaged in the real estate business and is manager of the Tilden estate in Greenpoint.

For City Auditor, the names brought before the convention were John K. Neal. John R. Sutton, William J. Wassmuth. Richard Pheirs, Henry W. Ringrose, Addison W. Hallock and Sciomon Gallinger. The result of the first ballot was the nomination of John R. Sutton, of the Ninth Ward. He is a resident of Dean-st. and is engaged in the to-bacco business in New-York. He has never held a public office, John K. Neal came next to him in the balloting, and the convention was nearly carried for him.

CONFERENCE ON MR. WHEELER'S CAM-PAIGN.

Democrats met in Charles S. Fairchild's office yesterday afternoon. There was a good attendance, and the subject discussed was how the campaign should be conducted. Edward M. Shepard said he had only stayed at the meeting a short time, and everything was going along smoothly, but he didn't know what had been done. No, they had not heard yet whether Lockwood and Brown would accept the third-ticket nominations. When asked what he thought about the declarations of Mr. Grace and Mr. Coudert that they would support Hill, all he would say was: "I disapprove of any one who won't support Mr. Wheeler."

TALKS OF HIMSELF. There is excellent authority for saying that Nathan Straus was nominated by Tammany Hall on Wednesday evening because he was the only man on the Committee of Eight's available list who could be induced to accept the "honor." It was a case of Hobson's choice. Ex-Controller Theodore W. Myers, who until the Anti-Tammany combination was completed by the accession of the New-York State Democracy and the German-American Reform Union, was believed to be in a receptive mood, absolutely refused to give the proposition any consideration whatever. A friend of the ex-Controller, who has been on intimate terms with him, said yesterday that Tammany spent several hours on Tuesday laboring with Mr. Myers, but was unable to shake his determination. The ex-Controller replied that no man could stem the popular tide rushing down upon Tammany. The nomination was also offered to Judge Dugro, and to Postmaster Dayton. Both declined it, as did also J. Edward Simmons, president of the Fourth National Bank, and ex-president of the Business Men's Democratic Association. Mr. Simmons responded by telephone, saying that his business required all his attention

Ex-Mayor Grant was talked of, but he had refused to be a candidate ten days when he learned that some of his impetuous friends were bent on stampeding the convention for him. Besides, the ex-Mayor was committed to Nathan Straus's nomi-nation, and had been bringing all the influence within his reach to bear in favor of Straus.

A SAD NECESSITY.

With nothing left but Mr. Straus to fall back on, Mayor Gilroy and his fellow-managers sadiy put the balance of the slate together and laid it before the Executive Committee. Said one wh was present: "It was the most dejected, de was present: "It was the most dejected, despairing gathering I ever saw in Tammany Hall. The gloom was so thick in that room you could have cut it with a knife. There were men there who are naturally of a sanguine temperament, but there was not one present who had any reasonable hope of seeing that ticket elected."

Despair was written on the faces of the Tammany district leaders yesterday. So far as has been learned, every one of them implored the Mayor and his committee not to nominate Mr. Straus. They told Mr. Gilroy that if Mr. Straus was placed at the head of the ticket it would be utterly impossible for them to hold their districts in line.

No Tammany man of any note was seen yes-terday who would predict a plurality for Straus. Many Wigwam men privately admitted that Strong would be the next Mayor beyond a doubt, and that nothing the organization could do would prevent it

"It costs the people of New-York nearly $49,500,000 a year to maintain the city government. If I am chosen Mayor I shall endeavor to give them a good return for this money. My administration shall be non-partisan, although it is not my intention to appoint enemies of the Democratic party to places while I can find good Democrats." Straus said that the Lexow Committee's

Mr. Straus said that the Lexow Committee's investigation met with his hearty approval, but he declined to go into a discussion of the causes which made possible the deplorable condition which had been revealed.

Mr. Straus said that he had been receiving many congratulatory letters and messages all day, with a large number of offers of support from elizens having no affiliation with Tammany Hall. Many of the writers Mr. Straus said, desired a business a liministration in the City Hall, and believed that he would give such an administration.

Mr. Straus refused to say any more about the costly present which he received since his name has been prominently mentioned for Mayor which was supposed to be intended to influence costly present which he received since his name has been prominently mentioned for Mayor which was supposed to be intended to influence his future official action. It was said that the present was a handsome silver tea-set. Mr. Straus would not give the name of the denor. The Tammany Hall candidates' headquarters will probably be opened in the Union Square Hotel, where ex-Mayor Hugh J. Grant conducted his two successful campaigns for the office to which Mr. Straus now aspires. Tammany men said that Mr. Grant might undertake the management of Mr. Straus's campaign, with the assistance of Dock Commissioner James J. Phelan and Police Justice Daniel F. McMahan.

Charles Stewart Smith said yesterday concerning Nathan Straus's nomination: "Mr. Straus is a most estimable citizen—freprosechable in his character and conduct. I am exceedingly sorry that he has thought best to shield Tammany with his personality, for behind him lurks the tiger, with all its corruption and misrule. He will be bound hand and foot by that organization, whose dishonorable methods he indorses by accepting its nomination. He will be powerless to effect reforms, just as Mr. Hewitt was under the same conditions."

NOMINATIONS THROUGHOUT THE STATE Kingston, N. Y., Oct. 11.-Henry McNamee, of Eddyville, was renominated to-day for Assembly by the Democrats of the 1st Clater District, Moses Democrats at Rosendale for the Assembly for the Hd Utster District. He was defeated in 182 on the same ticket, and was once a Republican.

RING NOMINATIONS IN BROOKLYN.

There were 642 election districts of Kings County represented at the regular Democratic County Convention, held in the Brooklyn Athenaeum last evening. James D. Bell, chairman of the County Committee, presided, and said that the convention would represent the free and untrammelled choice of the Democrats of the county. The slate pre-pared by the discredited leaders of last year was then put through. Michael J. Cummings was nom inated for Register of Deeds, to succeed Thoma. J. Kenna, receiving 411 votes to 222 for Robert Stewart. Colonel Cummines was City Clerk under Mayors Chapin and Boody, he was a city official at the time of the scandal over the Columbian holds.

For County Cerk, George W. Glendenning, of the Twenty-third Ward, was nominated by 424 votes to 178 for George G. Barnard, former Deputy County Clerk, Mr. Glendenning holds the office of Sealer of Weights and Mrasures, and has always been identified with the McLaughlin "machine."

For County Treasurer the convention named John H. Hownington, of the Seventeenth Ward, He formerly represented it in the Board of Supervisors.

JUSTICE BROWN AND THE THIRD TICKET Justice C. F. Brown, of Newburg, candidate for a caller at Democratic headquarters in the Park Avenue Hotel yesterday. He came principally to see Lieutenant-Governor Sheeban, who put him on the with party leaders relative to allowing the Inde pendent Democracy to put his name on their ticket. When seen by a reporter he said he had not come to any conclusion on the subject. Senator Hill in his speech at Syracuse last night advised that Messra. Lockwood and Brown should accept the pomination. Ex-Licutenant-Governor Edward F. Jones, of Binzhamton, was at the Park Avenue Hotel Wednesday night and yesterday morning. By waking fifty feet he could have called at the headquarters, but his martial mustachlos were not seen there.

Senator Hill has been billed to speak at Little Falls on the afternoon of October 15, at Mount Morris on the afternoon of October 17, and at a business men's meeting in this city on October 22.

WILLIAM L. STRONG ON TAXATION. HE EXPOSES THE TAMMANY BUNCO GAME OF A LOWER RATE WITH A HIGHER ASSESSED VALUATION.

William L. Strong had his attention called yes terslay to the subject of taxation in this city, and the fact that under Mayor Schieren's administration in Brooklyn taxes had been reduced nearly $10 on $1,000 assessed valuation, notwithstanding extra expenses incurred because of the annexa tion of the county towns. Mr. Strong was asked what he thought of the steady increase of taxes in this city.

said, "though not as much as I expect to from this time on. Taxpayers in this city have, for the last few years, been told over and over again that their taxes were being lowered, and the tax rate has been pointed to as proof. At the same time, the assessed valuation of property has been so largely and generally increased that the taxes have kept growing heavier. The decrease in the have kept growing heavier. The decrease in the tax rate has been a good deal of a mockery in view of this fact, it affords the owner of real estate in this city little satisfaction to be told that his taxes are less according to the tax rate, when the valuation is jumped up so that the property owner has to pay a larger tax bill year by year. I am firmly of the opinion that New-York City taxes are too high, and that they can be largely reduced by an economical municipal administration, as they have in Brooklyn."

"What are your chances of being elected?" was asked.

THE TICKET PRONOUNCED A GOOD ONE. WORK OF THE REPUBLICAN CONVENTION IN PROOKLYN MEETS HEARTY APPROVAL.

The Republican ticket of county officers in Brook lyn was completed at 3:30 o'clock yesterday morning at the convention begun Wednesday night in the Clermont Avenue Rink. Despite the long time occupied in the proceedings, the result was regarded as eminently satisfactory and expressive of the diect wishes of the voters. The system used was th asting of as many votes by each delegate as his istrict had cast for President Harrison.

candidate for Register, and in Granville W. Harman, at present Deputy Police Commissioner, a man well qualified for the place was named. Mr. Harman has been a lifelong Republican and identified with public affairs for a score of years. For County Clerk, Henry C. Saffen, of the Fifteenth Ward, was nominated at the close of a ballot which showed that he was ahead of Edward H. Schlucter. Mr. Saffen is the head of a large printing establishment and a member of the Republican Executive Committee. He has served one term as Supervisor of his ward. There were two aspirants for the nomination for ounty Treasurer, Hubert G. Taylor and Edward F. Linton. When it was manifest that the former was leading, the name of Mr. Linton was withdrawn and the nomination of Mr. Taylor was made withour opposition. He was formerly a member of Assembly and has served as receiving teller in the sembly and has served as receiving teller in the Manufacturers' National Bank. At present he is in the real ortate business.

For Associate Justice of Sessions the convention renominated John C. Matthews, of Flatlands, who has held the office for two years. He will be elected without opposition, but there was a rival candidate for the nomination in Jacob Reinsen, although his name was withdrawn, in view of the prevailing sentiment in favor of Judge Matthews.

Mr. Harman was warmly congratulated at his office yesterlay. He will lay down the duties of Deputy Police Commissioner in a few days.

Mayor Schieren said yesterday that the convention showed the success of the district representation plan, as every delegate had an opportunity to the heard, and to be responsible to his association for his vote. The convention was nearer to the people than ever before, and the ticket was a good one in every way.

To night the Independent Shepard Democrats will cominate a county licket, and the regular Democrats will name their city ticket. It is likely that Helsey Corwin will be renominated for Controller, and Anton Weber for City Auditor. The Republican nominations for members of Congress will be made in all the districts to-night.

The Commissioners recently de-tailed an inspector to find out if the contractors were employing allens or citizens. The inspector yesterday reported that not one of the contractors was complying with the law. The question is whether the law applies to the contractors, who themselves are, in nearly every case, non-residents of New-York. As election time is approaching, the Commis-sioners would, of course, like to have the con-tractors employ residents of this city and qualified voters, whose names they might possibly take the trouble to suggest to the contractors.

Bridgeport, Conn., Oct. 11.-Robert E. Deforest, present Congressman from the 1Vth District, was renominated at the Democratic Congress Convention held here to-day. Attorney John T. Cuff, of Dan-bury, protested against the nomination in behalf of the Danbury delegation, saying that he could not earry that city owing to his attitude in the fight there for the postmastership. The speaker was declared out of order, and the convention then nomi-nated Mr. Deforest by acclamation, the Danbury lelegates shouting "No."

after taking the 819th ballot. The sessions will be resumed to-morrow. THE SHEPARD CITY TICKET.

The Shepard Democrats, having nominated their State ticket, proceeded last night to nominate their city ticket in Brooklyn. About 450 delegates assembled in the Johnston Building, Nevins-st., and were called to order by Edward M. Shepard, who was afterward chosen permanent chaleman. Charles Edwards was elected secretary.

The candidates for Controller were J. Warren

Greene and Sidney V. Lowell. The former was sucessful. Mr. Lowell was not a delegate. For the nomination of Auditor there was pretty three-cornered fight among Michael pretty three-cornered fight among Michael E. O'Connor, Henry C. Wright and Augustus C. Fischer. Michael E. O'Connor is treasurer of the General Committee of the Independents, and figured as foreman of the jury that convicted McKane. Henry C. Wright is president of the Long island Eusiness College. The struggle bade fair to last till morning had not the O'Connor faction cast their votes for Wright, and Mr. Morahan, of the Fischer forces, moved to make the latter's nomination unanimous.

A Committee on Resolutions, consisting of one delegate from each ward, presented resolutions setting forth the nature of the reform organization and the kind of candidates it must choose.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

Syracuse, Oct. 11.-The clouds of political disaster hang over the head of David B. Hill, and he knows it. A more spiritless, despondent, apologetic speech has not been delivered here in years than was spoken here to-night by Mr. Hill n opening his campaign as the Democratic candidate for Governor. He implored Independent Democratic voters to vote for him, promising that if only they would east their ballots for him he would turn his back upon Murphy and Sheehan and Croker and Maynard, and, indeed, all the Democrats who have been his faithful licutenants in all his schemes, from stealing a Legislature to packing a Snapper con These sentiments were listened to with amusement and laughter by the Hill Democrats Plainly, they thought Mr. Hill's speech promising to live a better political life one of the best jokes Mr. Hill arrived here from Albany early this afternoon. There was not the slightest popular interest shown in his progress across the State, until the train arrived at Oneida. There about fifty Democrats gathered at the station and cheered him. He went out on the palace car, in which he was riding, and shook hards with several of his admirers, but declined to make a speech. Here there was a crowd of about 200 people at the station. The first to greet Mr. Hill as he stepped from the train was John F. Gaynor, member of the Democratic State Committee from this district. Mr. Gaynor is the man who gave himself State notoriety in 1888 by saying: "Hill would rather have the saloons behind him than the churches in his canvass for Governor." Mr. Hill warmly greeted Gaynor, and then was conducted to a dilapidated back; in which he was taken behind a brass band to the Yates House The people of Syracuse gazed at the little procesthe people of Syracuse gazet at the fittle procession and wondered what it meant, but made no investigation to learn that Mr. Hill was in the hack. Mr. Hill took possession of a room at the Yates, taiked for half an hour with the leading Democrats of Syracuse about his dismal prospects, and then set to work with a stenographer to prepare his evening speech.

A LACK OF ENTHUSIASM.

His speech at Alhambra Hall to-night was listened to by about 3,000 persons: The meeting was a well-attended one, but Mr. Hill, to every one's surprise, did not excite the Democratic crowd present to the usual enthusiasm with which his speeches have been hitherto greeted by a Democratic audience. Perhaps his speed was not sufficiently aggressive to please the crowd present. It was full of labored apologies and labored attacks upon the Republican party Mr. Hill defended the theft of the Legislature Mr. Hill defended the their of the Legislature, in 1891, and audaciously expressed his gratification that the thieves were successful. Frederic R. Coudert, who is supporting Mr. Hill, after assailling Maynard for his part in the theft of the Legislature, should read this part of Mr. Hill's

Mr. Hill distinctly takes the ground that he and Maynard were justified in stealing the Legislature, because the Democratic party had a majority of 47,000 upon their State ticket in 1891. This is a maxing morality. The Republican party defeated Maynard by 100,000 majority last fall. Would it have been justified in taking the Legislature from the Demoenough seats in the Legislature from the Demenough seats in the Legislature republican ma-jority represented in the Legislature? And is a man who boldly says that it is justifiable to dis-regard the orders of the courts if convinced of the "justice" of any political view taken by him a fit man for the Governor of the Empire State? ATTACK ON THE APPORTIONMENT.

Mr. Hill cries out against the apportionment amendment, because it destroys his handiwork

Mr. Hill cries out against the apportionment amendment, because it destroys his handwork and makes it more difficult for him to be resiected a United States Senator in 1897. Mr. Hill spoke in part as follows:

I know of no more appropriate place in which to open the present campaign than before the united Democracy of Onondaga County. Although largely in the minority, you have never been dismayed by local defeats, nor discouraged by adverse circumstances, nor intimidated by the boasts of our adversaries but with a firm adherence to the true principles of government, in which you sincerely believe, you have for years maintained your party organization intact, and are ever ready for the contest with the common enemy.

For the distinguished and venerable gentleman whom the Republican party has selected as my opponent in this campaign—or, more accurately speaking, the gentleman whom Mr. Platt selected and whose selection the convention subsequently ratified—I have nothing but the kindliest feelings and the most profound personal respect. I acknowledge his many excellent qualities, and am indebted to him for many courtestes while he was presiding officer of the Senate. Of genial disposition, of conceded business ability and of large means, he naturally attracts friends, and his candidary for any position which he may covet becomes most formidable and dangerous.

Born in the State of Vermont—prohibition Vermont, let me observe, the State whose Republicanism is most extreme and illiberal in its character—he afterward removed to New-Hampshire, where he was engaged in business for many years, as the Congressional directory shows: and it is a peculiar and significant fact, not without special interest in this campaign, that all the while Mr. Morton lived in New-Hampshire, and actually prohibited any person "not of the Protestant religion" from being Governor or a member of other house of the Valed and still provides that only Protestant teachers of the Legislature; and its Bill of Rights then provided and still provides ton has aspired he has been pushed forward by Mr. Platt.

Do not misunderstand me. I do not fall to appreciate the business qualifications, the excellent character, and unquestioned rollical ability of Mr. Platt. I differ with him politically, but as a citizen and a gentleman I have nothing to say against him, and decline to be one of his trasucers. He has a perfect right to be ambitious and to aspire to the Governorship of this State, but I do maist that he should be a candidate in person and not by proxy. There is no demand or place for a Warwick in this State or in this free country. His party should have nominated him instead of allowing him to drag his personnal candidate from his covered retirement to attempt to assume. If elected, the arduous and exhaustive duties of Chief Execudiseases. That, of all known agents to accomplish this purpose, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are unequaled, is proved by the fact that once used, they are always in favor. Their secondary effect is to keep the bowels open and regular, not to further constipate, as is the case with other pills. Hence, their great popularity, with sufferers from habit-tive of this State, onerous duties which walk largely have to be performed by Mr. Platt himself. (Applause.) IRRELEVANT ISSUES.

We should not permit our opponents to obscure the real issues involved in this election. We decline to belittle the important questions which divide the of the abuses pertaining to the Police Department of a single city, as though the correction of such abuses should be made a party question. The Democratic party of the State will not sanction Republican or Democratic blackmailing, whether discovered in Democratic or Republican municipalities, and it is an insult to the intelligence of the people to assume otherwise. We refuse to be placed upon the defensive upon false issues. The plate truth is that the Police Department of New-York City is wholethe Police Department of New-York City is a partisan, or rather a bi-partisan, department, porerned by Civil Service rules, and that the irregulatiles or abuses recently exposed have already implicated more Republican than Democratic policy officials, and that such exposures have been followed by prompt dismissais from the two interests of the prompt prosecutions at the instance of Democatic city and county officers.

It is idle to think that a State election can be made to turn upon such purely local mattern, it has not escaped public attention that the partisan Lexow Committee has not sought to discover any police abuses in any Republican cities of the State, and with such unfair discriminations the people will not tolerate any attempt to make partisan capital of the results of only partial investigation.

THE THEFT OF THE SENA 2.

THE THEFT OF THE SENA S Neither do we propose to permit any old issue already entirely disposed of to engross tion in this campaign. The question whether De ocrats properly or improperly, regularly or irreg-ularly, secured control of the State Senate in 188, is powder already burned which cannot be utilized manner in which a single Senatorial state of two short years obtained is overshadowed by the greater living question as to whether our opponents by an unjust constitutional apportionment shall obtain the control of the whole Legislature for all time to come. I do not intend to thrash old straw over again, but I desire simply to suggest that the Democrats had fairly carried the State ticket in 1881 by 47,090 majority, and no legal quibble, no technicalities, and no harsh constructions of judicial orders should have been permitted deprive them of the control of the Legislature by which under such circumstances the domination party was starily entitled; and whether any law was strained or not justice did in fact prevail. The Republicans last fall accidentally obtained control of the Constitutional Convention and have proceeded to place an apportionment of Serve and Assembly districts in their constitutional amendments to be submitted to the people at this election. The unfairness—the partisansin—the absolute injustice of the proposed apportionment admit of no argument. Its purpose was openly around on the floor of the convention to secure for all the future the control of the Legislature of the State to the Republicans, and no one doubts that such will be the effect. (Cheers.)
